Parliament & the British Slave Trade 1600 - 1807

www.parliament.uk/slavetrade

Explore the history • Examine the evidence
Search for ancestors • Have your say
This website from the Parliamentary Archives uses original source material, interwoven with narrative from expert historians, to tell the story of Parliament’s complex relationship with the British slave trade.

- Examine the original documents.
- What led to the 1807 Act to abolish the British slave trade?
- How did the public campaign influence Parliament?
- Did your ancestors sign petitions?
- Discover more about the Parliamentary Archives.
- Contribute your views and research to the site.